ILL HEALTH RESULTING FROM HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL INJURIES CAUSES SUICIDE

Wilbur Comer, Dresden, Shoots Self Thru Head

Was Kicked Over Kidneys in Game Between Dresden and Local High Schools Seven Years Ago--Leaves Wife and Week Old Babe.

Despondent over his failure to recover from the effects of an injury received while playing footbal lagainst the Coshocton high school team seven years ago, Wilbur Comer, 25, committed suicide in the cellar of his mother's home in Dresden shortly before noon Thursday. A 22 calibre target gun was used and death was instantaneous.

Comer was the son of Mrs. P. C. Comer and comes from a prominent Dresden family. He is survived by his wife and young baby, not yet a week old, his mother and several brothers and sisters. His father died only a few months ago. One brother, Clyde Comer, is the son-in-law of P. C. McGovern, director of the Dresden National Bank.

Injured In Game.

During the Coshocton high school-Dresden game of football at Dresden in the fall of 1908, Comer was accidently kicked over the kidneys and carried from the field in serious condition. The injury was not considered of a permanent nature at the time of the accident but a short time later the victim became seriously ill and was taken to a hospital where he underwent an operation. A few months later physicians discovered that one of Comer's kidneys was in a bad condition as a result of the blow and it was decided to operate upon him and remove the affected organ. He was never in robust health following the operation and a short time ago it was discovered that his remaining kidney was in practically the same diseased condition as the removed one had been.

Well Known Here.

Comer, who was well known here, spent a short time in the city several months ago and at that time told a friend here that he feared he could never recover. He appeared to be despondent at that time but gave no intimation that he contemplated suicide.

Comer was well known in Dresden and the vicinity. On account of the injury he was never able to engage in any kind of business but his usually bright and sunny disposition won a wide circle of friends all of whom will be grieved at the news of his death. Arrangements for funeral services had not been made at a late hour Thursday night.

Local Fraternity Men To Attend Convention

Raymie S. Curtis, of Coshocton, is among the speakers selected for the convention of the Phi Sigma Chi fraternity to be held in Zanesville, August 18-19-20. On the first night a barbecue and smoker will be held at Cliff Rock; on the second night a dance will be enjoyed in Memorial hall, while on the third night a banquet will be served at the Elk's club.

The Phi Sigma Chi was founded in Zanesville in November of 1900 and as a mark of honor to the parent chapter, the national convention usually chooses Zanesville as its place of meeting every sixth year.

Delegates from two cities, St. Joseph, Mo., and Toledo, O., are making a hot fight for the next convention and the meeting place will be decided at the business sessions of the convention here.

Phi Sigma Chi at present has 49 chapters, and in September two more will be installed, one at Denver, Colo., and one at Lincoln, Neb. At Lincoln, the Olympian club of 41 members will be taken over and at Denver, a total fraternity known as Delta Delta Delta will be changed to Phi Sigma Chi. The total membership of the fraternity is over 8700.

Where Chapters Are.

FREIGHT RATES DO NOT AFFECT COUNTY MINES

That the superior quality of West Virginia coal and not the alleged discrimination of railroads causes the lack of a market for Ohio coal is the contention of several local coal operators who were interviewed by The Tribune Thursday evening. Each operator interviewed denied that the alleged difference in the rates charged by railroads for shipping West Virginia and Ohio coal has any great affect upon the conditions in Coshocton county mines which are working on an average of about two days each week.

The operators were also practically unanimous in their belief that little or no good will result from the proceedings instigated by miners of the Hocking Valley district against 51 Ohio railroads. One operator said that the mines of Coshocton county will not be affected for two or three years by any decision of the public utilities commission before which the charges of the miners are being heard. The hearing commenced Thursday at Columbus. In speaking of the local condition, the operator said that it was a big problem. "The freight rates play a part in the problem," he said, "but the question is involved. At the present time there are about 50,000 miners in the state and it is estimated conservatively that 20,000 of these are being employed about three days each week. Adverse legislation and other conditions are partially responsible for the condition. When there is a wage increase for the miners there must be a corresponding increase in the market price of coal or the operators are unable to run their mines at anything like a profit."

He said that in Coshocton county the miners are averaging about two days work each week. "The tonnage in Coshocton county this year will be less than thirty per cent of what it was three years ago."

Davis Talks

David Davis, of the Tyrone and Davis mines, said in an interview last night, "I foresaw the present conditions six or eight years ago when the railroads established a direct line from the West Virginia fields to the northern lake regions. They laid heavier rails and increased the tonnage of their coal cars from 60,000 to 100,000 and 120,000 pounds and built heavier engines in preparation for the long haul. This increased tonnage capacity per car meant only one thing—that rates would be much cheaper. At present the rate per ton from Coshocton county to Cleveland is 70 cents, while the rate from West Virginia is only $1.15 or a difference of 45 cents on the ton.

"This difference is tonnage is, however, offset by other conditions. As a matter of fact, West Virginia coal is better than Ohio coal. It will produce more steam per pound than will our coal mined here in Coshocton or in this state. It will average at least 15 per cent more in steam power. Therefore, the West Virginia coal finds more demand even at a slightly higher price than does the Ohio coal.

At Smaller Cost

"Again it is in a large measure true that West Virginia coal is produced at less cost than here. The rates for cutting and loading of course vary but in some places it is just about half that paid in the local field. With the cost of production lower, of course the marketing price would be, in spite of the difference of freight rates, almost the same as that of Ohio coal.

"I do not believe that the railroads have discriminated. They simply did that which would mean the most money for themselves. They increased the capacity of their cars and made a straight haul without switching, with the result that they could cheapen rates. I do not think that much will come from the present investigation.

On Half Time

"The Davis and Tyrone mines are now working only two or three days each week, as the local market is dragging. Usually in this this county about the first of August the local trade picks up. The heavy rains have delayed the harvesting of crops and consequently, people are not laying in their supply of coal yet. Coshocton county mines practically supply only local trade as they have never been able to compete in the lake trade. The coal mined in the county is soft and in the handling before it reaches its destination for the lake trade, is broken up so that it is but little better than mine run coal."

R. N. Barnes, of the Barnes Coal and Mining Company, said: "I do not consider that the alleged discrimination by the railroads has much to do with local conditions. These rates in question have not been changed since 1913 and that was one of the best years for the miners that I have known. If the present condition is caused by these rates why did they not affect conditions then?

Full Force Working

"The Barnes No. 2 and the Franklin mines are now employing a full force of 125 men, the Barnes No. 1 being closed. These mines, as do practically all of Coshocton county mines, supply local trade which is at present dragging.

"At least one cause of the successful competition of West Virginia coal with that mined in Ohio, is the lower rates of production. In some sections of the West Virginia field rates are about half that paid here. An illustration of this is the rate paid for cutting and loading of 50 cents per ton. Local miners are paid $1.00.

Bethlehem Steel Now Going up

New York, Aug. 5.—Common stock of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, whose rise has seen few parallels in the history of the New York Stock Exchange, passed the 300 mark today, which means $100 worth of stock will bring $300 on the market. It sold during the morning at 301; a gain since the beginning of the war of 269 points. The company was incorporated in 1904 and the stock has never paid a dividend.

The rise today was 11 points from the previous high record, established yesterday, o. 290. The stock had advanced 50 points this week. When the stock exchange closed on July 30, 1914, just before the outbreak of the war, it was quoted at 32.

Young Gibson is a patient in the Cambridge hospital, and it is feared the eyesight cannot be saved.

Mrs. Mary A. Smith, of Trinway, was in Coshocton, Wednesday.

Believe Allies Will Accept Any Peace Proposal

Kaiser Expected to Return to Berlin Sunday When Important Conference Is To Be Held--Allies Thought To Be Tired Of War.

Berlin, via The Hague, Aug. 5.—Official circles here today did not conceal the belief that the world war may come to an end before winter.

The kaiser is expected to return to Berlin on Sunday.

An important conference is to be held next week by government officials.

It was reported today that the ministry will discuss with the emperor the moves Germany is to make now that the Warsaw campaign has ended successfully.

Tiring Of War.

The decision will be reached before the reichstag reassembles on Aug. 17, and it promises to have a far-reaching effect on the outcome of the war.

The belief that Germany's enemies, despite their public announcement of preparedness to fight to the end, are in reality tiring of the war and about ready to talk peace, is based on the growing conviction in official circles here that the allies have about "reached the end of their string" so far as offensive movements are concerned.

The German viewpoint is: First, that Russia has been dealt a blow that will nullify her offensive power for a long time to come.

Think Allies Helpless.

Second: That England and France realize their inability to push the Germans out of France and Belgium, as evidenced by their inactivity while Germany concentrates against the Slavs.

Third: That the Dardenelles can never be forced.

Fourth: That the Balkan situation is satisfactory inasmuch as Bulgaria, according to best available information, has given assurance that she will remain neutral until the end of the war.

This spirit of optimism is shared equally by both Germany and Austria. Constantinople advices report the situation satisfactory from the Turkish standpoint.

The scarcity of shells, which hindered the Turks' operations earlier in the war, has been remedied. The Turks are now able to produce enough shells in their own munition factories to supply their needs.

The situation at Athens is being watched closely by German diplomats, but political circles here have little fear the Greece will abandon her neutrality.

Advices here indicate the people of Greece, angered at British interference with their commerce and mistreatment of Greek natives in Egypt, are in no hurry to ally themselves with Great Britain.

Annual Picnic of Jackson Township Grange is Held

Better farming was the general theme of the talk given before the Jackson grange by Jacob McQueen, of Baltic, at its annual picnic at the David Cullison grove in Jackson twp., Thursday.

Mr. McQueen demonstrated how, by getting bacteria into the soil, a forty acre farm can be made to yield what a hundred and sixty-five acre farm is not doing today. By proper cultivation of the soil, he said, the barns on the one hundred and sixty-five acre farm would not hold what could be produced on a forty acre farm. He told the farmers how the money they are paying out for fertilizer can be kept in their own pockets by proper rotation of crops and use of other facilities they have at hand.

Another interesting speaker at the picnic was, Fred Bale, of Canton, Secretary of the State Temperance organization, who talked in behalf of the temperance amendment to be submitted to the vote of the people at the November election.

More than one hundred members of the grange, their families and friends enjoyed the day's outing. A program of recitations and vocal selections was given by the young people of the grange and a ball game between Mohawk grange and Jackson was a feature of the afternoon, the home team winning.

A sumptuous dinner, such as is seldom found except upon occasions of this kind, was enjoyed at noon.

Another good thing about the movies is that thier haint no encores. Live so you kin wear any durn thing you please.

Local Girl May be Long Lost Daughter

In Ida May Clinger, a Coshocton girl who for some time was in the Tuscarawas county children's home, a Pennsylvania woman believes she has found a long lost daughter.

The woman is Mrs. Anna Ries, of Millvalle, Pa. The story written by a former burgess of Millvalle, is to the effect that some years ago Mrs. Ries was left a widow with two children. Being unable to care for them, she gave them into the keeping of a woman known as Janette Johnstone. One of the children was taken ill with typhoid fever, and it is alleged that at that time Mrs. Johnstone disappeared with the older Ries girl and Mrs. Ries has never been able to find either the woman or her daughters unless the Clinger girl is her daughter.

Recently Mrs. Ries met Ida May Clinger. Each was attracted to the other. Questioning the girl brought out statements that made Mrs. Ries think Ida May is her own, and some days ago she came to the children's home to get further information.

Mr. Kelley, superintendent of the Tuscarawas home, believes the woman is mistaken in the identity of the girl, as the latter was admitted to the home from Coshocton county some years ago, and the papers show that she was born in that county. Mrs. Ries being in a very nervous condition consequent upon the discovery she believed she had made, Mr. Kelly did not give to her all the proofs he had of the girl's parentage, fearing the effect the disappointment might have on her at the time.

WAS DISORDERLY.

William Brown, better known as "Willie" was arrested Wednesday night and lodged in the city prison on a charge of disorderly conduct. He will face the mayor this morning.

THREE "P. D's."

Money To Be Sent By Mail

Washington, Aug. 4.—All shipments of government money and securities after August 16 will be made by registered mail, instead of express, according to an announcement of Acting Secretary of the Treasury Newton today.

The postoffice department will establish branch offices in the treasury here and at the various subtreasuries throughout the country to facilitate the business.

The transporiation heretofore has been handled by express companies. The treasury department estimates that they will lose close to half million dollars yearly as a result of today's order, that the banks and the government will save several hundred thousand dollars each year, and that the postoffice department will increase its receipts to the extent of the difference between the present cost and the saving effected by the banks and the government.

THEATRES

AT THE MYSTIC.

"The Moth and the Flame," the greatest of all celebrated plays by the gifted dramatist, Clyde Fitch, has been produced with remarkable effect by the Famous Players Film Company, and is the current feature attraction at the Mystic today.

The play made such a definite success when produced on the stage that the screen translation of the powerful plot is certain to attract wide interest. The moth is Marion Melton, a fashionable but very lovable girl in New York, who is in love with Edward Fletcher, though she is warned by her friends of his character. Womanlike, she defends and loves him all the more because of the many enemies who speak against him, and again womanlike, openly declares she does not believe the stories of his past, and secretly tells herself that even if they are true she knows that she can reform him. She is about to marry him, when another young woman with a child presents herself at the wedding ceremony, and claims the name of the man.

Good Game Is Expected For Today

Indications are that one of the largest crowds of the season will witness the Federal-Fresno game on the Red Sea diamond this afternoon. The fresno aggregation is touted as being above the average and the locals realize that they will have to play in good form to win.

The diamond is in good condition and both teams have practiced hard for the match.

Manager Brice believes that he team representing the Havilands Athletic Club of Akron, which will appear here next Sunday, will prove the strongest attraction he has ever booked. The Havilands are touted among the strongest semi-pro teams in the state and should draw a record breaking crowd. They will line-up as follows: Burrell, 2b; O. Hardgrove, ss; C. Hardgrove, lf; Oehringer, c; Marchand, 3b; Heintzelman, 1b; Geottge, rf; Sisler, cf; Silhower, Krohngold, Mains, p; Stevens and Spikerman, substitutes.

And that's 2561 pairs fewer than were wedded in Ohio in the previous year and 330 fewer than 1912, when the population was much smaller.

Keeps Sheriff Well Informed

Frederick, Md., Aug. 4.—After keeping Sheriff John C. Conard, jr., informed by telephone of a controversy which was being conducted on his farm and after asking the sheriff whether he would be justified in using a gun, William W. Mines shot his tenant, Charles Keath, in the knee.

This is the conversation that Mines carried on with Sheriff Conard by telephone:

"Sheriff, Keath is abusing his family and is swearing at me. What shall I do?"

The Sheriff advised Mines to use diplomacy. Ten minutes later Mines again called the sheriff and in a voice that trembled with anger said. "Sheriff, Keath is threatening me and my family. Shall I shoot him?"

"No, of course not," said the sheriff. "Use a club if he enters your home."

A quarter of an hour later mines rang up the Frederick county jail and said, "Sheriff, I shot Keath; you had better send out for him."

The sheriff and his deputies found Keath lying in Mines' yard with blood pouring from his leg and Mines sitting on his porch smoking.

"Sheriff," said Mines, "I missed him the first time I shot by a few inches, but I got him on the second shot. See, I shot him in the leg."

Advertisement Called A Fake

Chicago, Aug. 4.—An advertisement published in a Chicago newspaper today offered employment to mechanics on government work in England. The men were offered free transportation both ways, with a six months' contract.

I have read the advertisement and cannot imagine its source. It looks like the unauthorized enterprise of private individuals."

Thin Men and Women

Here's a Safe Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 lbs. of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh.

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your blood instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative functions of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. The best way to overcome this sinful waste of flesh building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to use Sargol, the recently discovered regenerative force that is recommended so highly by physicians here and abroad. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and notice how quickly your cheeks fill out and rolls of firm, healthy flesh are deposited over your body, covering each bony angle and projecting point. Wimmer-Arnold Drug Co., and other good druggists have Sargol, or can get it from their wholesaler, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the gain in weight it produces as stated on the guarantee in each package. It is inexpensive, easy to take and highly efficient.

Caution—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomack troubles, it should not be taken unless you are willing to gain ten pounds or more, for it is a wonderful flesh-builder.

SHIP PURCHASE LEGISLATION.

McAdoo's Letter Reveals Purpose of Administration.

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 5.—The program of the Wilson administration to relieve the effort to pass ship purchase legislation at the next session of congress was disclosed in a letter from Secretary McAdoo read before the Pan-American dinner of the Greensboro chamber of commerce. Secretary McAdoo, who was sponsor for the ship purchase bill, was to have been the principal speaker at the dinner, but being at his summer home, North Haven, Me., he sent a letter to be read which was devoted almost entirely to an appeal to southern people to work for the passage of legislation providing means for transporting the south's great staple, cotton, to the South American market.

The McAdoo letter is regarded here as all the more significant because of the fact that he has just conferred with President Wilson on this subject.

Ironton Club Throws Up Sponge.

Ironton, O., Aug. 5. Poor patronage is the cause of the dissolution, and the league forfeit is not sufficient to pay back salaries of the players.

THREE TOTS PERISH.

Serious Fire Sweeps Lake Delavan, Wisconsin Summer Resort.

Lake Delavan, Wis., Aug. 5.—Dynamite enabled firemen to get Lake Delavan's disastrous fire under control. The blaze swept ten cottages of wealthy resorters and cost the lives of three children. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Huddled together at the open window of the second story of the cottage of George G. Bryant, president of the Racine Rubber company, the three little children perished when they jumped to leap to the ground. They were Helen, 9, Lucy, 7, and Mary, 5.

The parents and two older sisters were at a summer dance hall across the lake. Mrs. Bryant fainted when confronted with the charred bodies of her children.

THREE STARS ON AKRON'S TEAM

George Shoner, pitcher, L. Marchand, third baseman and G. Gebringer, catcher, are responsible in a large measure for the Haviland A. C. winning the 1915 pennant in the Akron Amateur Baseball Association.

Shoner is the right handed speed marvel who twirled for the Akron club of the Buckeye league for a time this season. Merchant is the heaviest hitting player in the city getting 30 singles, many of them for extra bases, in 76 times at bat. Gebringer is the best catcher in amateur baseball in Northern Ohio, pegs the bases like a big leaguer and bats like a fiend.

The entire Haviland A. C. is strong. The pennant was won by team-work and every man in the combination is entitled to his share of credit. Coshocton folks will see a real club when the Havilands play here Sunday.

Fresno Proves Easy Picking For Federals

Visitors Put Up Poor Exhibition of Fielding Although Leavengood Shows Good Form in The Box--Donley Makes First Appearance On Slab for Feds.

Showing superiority in every department, the Coshocton Feds had but little trouble in taking the Fresno aggregation into camp by the score of 7 to 2 on the Red Sea diamond Thursday afternoon. While the score was tied at one time during the game, the Feds really never considered themselves in danger of being defeated as the fielding of the Fresno aggregation was decidedly poor and the visitors were unable to secure bingles off either Donley or Wiggins at the opportune moment.

Pitchers In Form.

Donley made his first appearance with the Feds and showed the fans that he is second to no pitcher in the county. His control was good and his curves were puzzlers. He has an underhand ball that the Fresno aggregation was unable to solve and to make him more valuable he proved that he could hit the ball by poling out a nice single. On account of the fact that he is to pitch a game for Tyndall next Saturday, he only pitched the first six innings. Wiggins, who relieved Donley, was also in good form allowing the Fresno team only one hit in the three innings.

The pitching of Lefty Leavengood for Fresno was good and he deserved a much better fate. However, the miserable fielding of Brown at short, and other members of the team coupled with their lack of batting ability, gave him no chance to win. An unusual feature of the game was that not a single batter was passed on balls.

McGiffen Makes Three.

The Feds commenced scoring in the second when Portz booted McGiffen's grounder. Sondles sacrificed him to second and Clark sacrificed him to third. He scored on Darr's single. The second score was also made by the Feds during the fourth innings. Brown bungled McGiffen's grounder and Sondles sacrificed him to second. Clark's single brought him in.

Fresno tied the score in the sixth when Deeds singled advancing to third on Lefty Leavengood's single and scoring when Gilbert dropped Syler's fly to left. Leavengood score after Clark had caught Brown's fly into deep right. The Feds cinched the game by scoring three in the sixth, when the Fresno infielders booted everything that came their way and to make it even more safe the locals ran in two more in the seventh when Fresno continued their putrid fielding and forced Leavengood to retire the side by striking out three men.

The score and summary:

EAGLE SHELLS HAITIEN REBELS

Bobo's Attempt to Take City Made It Neaessary.

Washington, Aug. 5.—Haitien rebels under General Bobo were shelled by the United States survey ship Eagle from Cape Haitien harbor as they tried to enter the city, Admiral Caperton notified the state department. Under the Eagle's fire, he said, the rebels were chased to the woods outside the city.

A message to Caperton, at Port au Prince, from the Nashville's commanding officer, said no armed Haitien troops remained at Cape Haitien.

Though Bobo's attempt to take the city made it necessary to shell his forces, it was not believed the Eagle was forced to damage the city.

SITUATION IN HAITI.

Foreigners Feel Easier After More Marines Are Landed.

Port au Prince, Aug. 5.—The United States battleship Connecticut has arrived here and landed 120 men to preserve order and prevent further outbreaks of revolutionary violence.

With the arrival of the Connecticut and the landing of additional American forces, foreigners here breathed a sigh of relief. The force of marines landed from the cruiser Washington was regarded as too small to preserve order, but with 1,800 armed Americans on duty it is believed that any critical situation can be promptly met.

The general belief is that the American occupation will be permanent until a government has been set up and shown its ability to preserve order. There is no indication of the establishment of a stable government at present.

The Haitian congress fears the partisans of General Bobo and dares not vote to put his opponent, General Blot, in office. The political situation has become highly critical.

REVOLT NIPPED IN BUD.

Relative of Oroczo Held Under Bond by United States Commissioner.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 5.—A second effort to launch a Huerta-Orozco revolution is thought to have been stopped near Fort Hancock.

Twenty Mexicans were brought to El Paso from Fort Hancock, fifty miles east of El Paso, and arraigned before United States Commissioner Oliver on a charge of conspiracy to set on foot a military expedition to Mexico in violation of the neutrality laws.

The Mexicans were arrested near Fort Hancock by United States soldiers, customs officers and Texas rangers, while going in the direction of the border. They had forty rifles, a quantity of ammunition and a wagon filled with commissary supplies, when they were arrested.

Alpine Farias was arrested by United States Deputy Marshal J. Du Boise on a similar charge, and appeared before the United States commissioner. His bond was fixed at $5,000. He is alleged to have been implicated in the organization of the Fort Hancock expedition. He is related to General Orozco, and the movement is believed to have been started to take advantage of the chaotic conditions in Chihuahua to launch the Huerta-Orozco movement which was stopped here when Huerta and Orozco were arrested.

I am regular, my stomach is better and my pains have all left me. You can use my name if you like. I am proud of what your remedies have done for me."—Mrs. MARY GAUTHIER, 21 Ridge St., Montpelier, Vt.

An Honest Dependable Medicine

It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for nearly forty years, and to-day hold a record for thousands upon thousands of actual cures, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

THE PERILS OF PROHIBITION

Our wet friends are spending much brain power and printer's ink telling us of the sure disaster ahead if we adopt prohibition. Perhaps we do give too litle heed to the warnings of these highbrow patriots. They have counted the cost and the people have only themselves to blame if the disaster of prohibition overtakes us.

Former Congressman Landis of Indiana, too, has issued a warning of the perilous times ahead for many of our industries if prohibition be adopted. His warning is one of the most comprehensive we have read and for the benefit of those who are not fully alarmed to the dangers that are upon us we reprint a portion of the danger signal he waved in a recent speech :

I want to speak to you a little while about the terrible disasters which will follow national Prohibition.

Think of the fine madhouses made empty. Have we the right to stop going crazy if it will throw asylum guards out of work? Think of the employees of our beautiful penitentiaries. Shall we strike down 85 per cent of their prosperity? Shall we cast upon the scrapheap the divorce lawyers of our land, the bone and sinew of our country?

And there is the corkscrew industry. It has not the pull it used to have. Untold fortunes invested in its manufacture are gone.

Take the steel industry. National Prohibition will affect the manufacture of padlocks, jimmies, ball and chains, handcuffs and prison bars. Millions will be thrown out of work.

And this does not include the millions of skilled workmen now engaged in the manufacture of brass knuckles. Gamblers will be reduced not only to want—but to work.

After all, can the American home survive the ravages of sobriety? Can any nation hope to lead the march of human progress if we limit the output of locomotor ataxia?

The constitution provides the right of trial by jury. How are we going to enjoy this right if we remove the incentive to crime? The constitution also guarantees the right of habeas corpus. How are we going to exercise this if the people stop going to jail?

But, in spite of all this disaster, I'm for national Prohibition. I'm for it because no honest government can steal babies' shoes and call it revenue. I'm for it because no civilized nation can run a toll-gate on the road to hell. I'm for it because I want a national defense that can defy the world if necessary.

I'm for it because it's more in the scope of the republic's business to protect little children at home than to protect big business abroad. I'm for it because it's the nation's wrong and the nation alone can right it.

Goods from Rotterdam Will Likely Be Held Up by Britain.

Washington, Aug. 5—The British embassy gave out this statement:

"The papers of Aug. 4 contain a statement by Mr. Arthur P. Meagher, president of Charles H. Wyman & Co. customs brokers of St. Louis, and vice president of the American Importers' association, on the proposed purchase of a German ship to carry to American dealers, merchandise that has accumulated at Rotterdam Bremen and other German ports. This statement contains the following paragraph

"Sir Richard Crawford [illegible] quoted as saying that if the American manufacturers and shippers could get ships to carry their goods from Rotterdam they would not be interfered with. In order to prevent any misunderstanding on the part of American importers the British embassy considers it desirable to point out that Sir Richard Crawford has not at any time made any such statement [illegible] could be given [illegible] without the authority of the department in London [illegible] whose hands all such decisions [illegible]

Austrians Want Reinforcements.

Rome, Aug. 5.—[illegible] made repeated and [illegible] attacks against the Italian left wing of the Italian armies which is slowly enveloping the Austro-Hungarian fortresses of Goritz and Tolmino. The motive of the attacks is doubtless the grave danger of the Austrian garrisons there being cut off, hence while the Austrians are compelled to hold their positions to prevent the immediate occupation of Tolmino and Goritz, they are vainly striving to check the advance with the object of averting the investment of the strongholds. Meanwhile the Austrian commanders are calling for reinforcements. These are needed to organize the second line defenses, since otherwise the Italian general advance would become a regular invasion on a very large scale
